Lunch & Learn: The Victorian Age, 1860-1895

Friday, May 9 at 12:00pm in Theobald

✉ RSVP by 5/6 • Cost: $10

From the 1860s through the end of the 19th century, Cincinnati's prominent people and organizations built many of the most beautiful buildings and public places the city has ever seen. They made a strong case that Cincinnati was "The Paris of America" — an attractive place to live, offering a high level of culture and entertainment. Today's residents and visitors to the city are very fortunate that many of these beautiful Victorian era designs have survived to thrill us today.
